Centurion Show Band Announce Plans for 2008!

The Centurion Show Band is pleased to announce that in 2008 they will be undertaking a full competitive season, attending a large proportion of BYBA shows. The band held their first rehearsal back on Sunday 21st October which was also an Open Rehearsal for anyone interested in taking up membership, which resulted in 7 new members of the wind and tuned percussion section being recruited.

For 2008 Centurion will be revisiting a completely "Show Band" musical and visual repertoire, including You Really Got Me, Another Saturday Night, Bring Me To Life, and closing out with V.I.P. Everyone involved with the 2008 Centurion Show Band are extremely excited about the direction the band is heading, and are looking forward to the many other interesting activities that are currently being planned for 2008, including a tour of Scotland and a brand new Percussion Ensemble, Centurion Percussion.

Centurion's website has recently seen many changes and updates, and can be found at www.centurionshowband.org.uk – or you can visit the brand new Centurion Percussion micro site at www.percussion.centurionshowband.org.uk – both of these sites have extensive information regarding planned events and list all the latest news about the band and its many varying activities.
